

Advice for Accommodation

Technical Sessions of the Symposium during September 26-28, 2026 will be held in IIT Delhi Campus, which is located near Hauz Khas area of New Delhi. It is well connected with Delhi Metro Lines. There is a station called IIT Delhi on the Magenta Line. This line connects with the Yellow line at the Hauz Khas station. Magenta Line runs from Noida in the East to Janakpuri in the West, while Yellow Line runs from Badli in North to Gurgaon (Gurugram) in the South. Localities like Hauz Khas, Malviya Nagar, Green Park, Safdarjung Development Area (SDA), R.K. Puram, Munirka, Vasant Vihar and Adhchini are close to IIT Delhi Campus.

The inauguration, keynote address and the banquet will be held at the National Physical Laboratory (CSIR-NPL) on September 25, 2026 in the afternoon. CSIR-NPL is located near Karol Bagh area and is connected with Metro Blue line (nearest station: Karol Bagh or New Rajendra Place; 10-15 min walk to NPL).

Accommodation for Student/Young Participants:

All localities mentioned above have a number of guest house, B&B hotels and hostel type of accommodation which student participants can book through various apps. Since the semester is running, hostel accommodation is not available in bulk; however, if a participant has a friend resident in any hostel, may become a guest through him/her, as per existing rules. Please check with your friend. We encourage participants to arrange their accommodation. In case of a difficulty, please approach the organizers for assistance. Please apply through the Google form at the earliest: <<https://forms.gle/bfoojrSknahzrs989>>. We can arrange limited accommodation in the hotels/guesthouses (please see below) which will cost around Rs. 1500-2000 per day per person (incl. breakfast) in a sharing accommodation. We will also try to accommodate female students in IIT Campus or nearby areas, as far as possible.

Accommodation for Faculty and Professionals:

For faculty and other professionals (other than invited/plenary speakers) 3,4 & 5-star accommodation is available around IIT Delhi. The tariff for typical 3-star hotels/guesthouses is Rs. 4-5,000 for a double room while 5-star hotels would cost around 14-16,000 for a double room. We encourage the participants to book their accommodation through online apps. You may contact our travel partner agency for help in accommodation and any travel needs: info@dreamztravel.net (Attn: Mr. Jitin Batra). The agency has made block reservation at Eros Hotel (5-star), Nehru Place, New Delhi – ₹14,500 + GST per night (double occupancy) and Rockland Hotel (3-Star) – ₹5,000 + GST per night (double occupancy). Organizers will be able to assist in finding accommodation if there is any difficulty. Please apply through the Google form at the earliest: <<https://forms.gle/HEAQ8xLevJAJYoMx7>>.
